

FULL TELEGRAPHIC AND CABLE NEWS SERVICE
OF THE UNITED PRESS

THE DAY BOOK

500 SO. PEORIA ST.

398

TEL. MONROE 353

Vol. 1, No. 196

Chicago, Monday, May 13, 1912

One Cent

SLAIN CHICAGO GIRL'S IDENTITY A MYSTERY.

Is Claimed as Daughter by One and Sister by Another.

Police of both Chicago and Los Angeles, enmeshed in a tangled mass of circumstances identifying the supposed Chicago girl slain in a bungalow in the California city as several different people, are still in the dark as to the correct name of the dead woman.

Of one thing only are they reasonably sure. She was from Chicago. Beyond that is mystery.

Mrs. L. A. Keller, an aged woman of Los Angeles, viewed the body and said she believed it was that of her daughter, who formerly lived in Chicago. This would account for the label of a Chicago department store found in her clothes. Mrs. Keller said her daughter's married life was unhappy.

Detectives in Chicago working on the case uncovered clues which they believe identify the girl as Elizabeth Burns, former member of Holy Name church.

Mrs. Michael Healy, a sister of Miss Burns, and Hazel Boughan, are positive she is Miss Burns.

"HOW I FLEW OVER THE ENGLISH CHANNEL."

Daring American Girl's Story of Feat That Startled Europe.

Harriet Quimby.

Editor's Note: Miss Harriet Quimby, an American girl recently startled Europe by flying alone and unaided across the English channel. Miss Quimby is a Californian by birth, and a New Yorker by adoption. She is 24 years old.

By Harriet Quimby.

Directly I took my seat in the Bleriot I knew I would be all right—she was a beauty! I felt